

August 21, 1944.

Mr. A. J. Van Citters,
716 W. 3rd St. No.,
Eagle Grove, Iowa.

Dear Mr. Van Citters:

I have just returned after a very pleasant visit with you and your fellow coaches at Boone, Iowa. I acknowledge receipt of your payment of $4.00 for my text, "Better Basketball". I am writing you now to be very certain of the spelling of your name and your address.

The reason I am doing this is that a letter will be returned to me, whereas if I should autograph a book it might lie in the postoffice uncalled for, for quite some time. I can be more accurate with a letter.

I would like to know if you would like any special autograph, such as "remembering the pleasantries of the Iowa High School Athletic Association Coaching School at Boone, Iowa, on August 15 - 19", and so forth. Or would you want me to autograph it to the school, or what? If you have any special preference, let me know. If not, I will just make a short introduction with the autograph. If you have any special feature I will be glad to follow that. If you do not want to write a letter just put a footnote at the end of this letter and mail it to me, and if I do not hear from you in a week I will autograph the book with my own introduction and mail the same to you.

Again remembering with very great pleasure our fine associations, and wishing you success for the coming year, I am

Very sincerely yours,

Director of Physical Education,
Varsity Basketball Coach.
