

The Rev. Jacob M. Weiss

The Church of Saint Joseph

EARLING, IOWA

August 29, 1944.

Dear Doctor Allen,

I wish nothing special for an introduction to your autograph of your book. I am most grateful for your autograph. The letterhead will give you my name and address.

I should like to write you another letter later on. Just now I'm busy, very busy. School has begun and things are not, as yet, running smoothly.

Most sincerely yours,

Jacob Weiss
