

August 14, 1941.

Mr. Balfour Jeffrey,
Attorney-at-Law,
Topeka, Kansas.

Dear Bal:

I wanted to play golf with you before I left for the Iowa Coaching School, which begins early next week. Wednesday I ran up to Topeka with Mr. Hitt, our assistant registrar, to confer with Major Montgomery, of the Kansas Selective Service organization. We finished about noon, so Mr. Hitt and I dropped into the Pennant Cafeteria for luncheon. I ran across Dr. Kirkpatrick and we had a short and pleasant visit.

I told Dr. Kirkpatrick that I still wanted to play golf with you, and I was hoping that you would be in town when I return sometime around the week-end of August 23rd. If so, I will give you a ring and we will have that long cherished and promised game of golf.

I am sending you a copy of the letter that I wrote to the basketball players. Does this letter stir or revive any of the old memories that you had when you were battling for a place and were successful in winning one very important place on the Kansas Jayhawkers?

With best wishes, I am

Sincerely yours,

FCA:AH
