Dear Mac:

Before you receive this letter you will have seen the game, but I want you to know that I enjoyed your communication, and any time you write me you can always rest assured that you will get service if there is any way that I can procure that for you.

My kindest regards to you and your good family.

I am glad that you like Cal Morrow. I think he is a swell fellow.

I am still taking a rain check on my visit down to see you. Perhaps I better check up on my physical condition because the footnote on your letter leads me to believe that you are devastating when you charge on a handball court. So I will follow your admonition and be very careful before I venture.

Very sincerely yours,

Director of Physical Education and Recreation,
Varsity Basketball Coach.
