Dear Phog:

Glad to hear from you today, and I hasten to send you the names requested.

On the Rocky Mountain News the men who will have something to do with Basketball are Chester Nelson, Hank Rabun, and Clair Jordan. On the Denver Post, are Robert Ganzey, William W. White, and Leonard Cahn. I do not think Poss Parsons will do any Basketball writing, thank God!

I saw the Colorado-Utah Football game at Salt Lake City, Saturday. This boy, Whizzer White is unquestionably the best football player I ever saw on the gridiron. He has everything, and incidentally there are few better football teams in the country this year than the one at Colorado University. They are a cinch to win the Rocky Mountain Conference.

I wrote to Ad Lindsay today, suggesting that should Kansas win the "Big Six" conference, a game could probably be arranged in Denver between Colorado and Kansas at the Denver University Stadium. If such a game were played, I believe it would net Kansas at least $10,000.00.

Will you write me confidentially telling me whom I really should contact and what your personal opinion is regarding the possibility of such an arrangement.

I would like very much to get back to Lawrence for the Thanksgiving game, but it will be impossible.

Very kind regards,

Yours very truly,
