

December 6, 1937.

Mr. W. A. McKinney, Treasurer,
Wheeler Kelly Hagney Trust Co.,
Wichita, Kansas.

Dear W. A.:

In reply to your communication of the 4th instant, it is my understanding that all negotiations necessary for a refunding of the bonded indebtedness have taken place.

You are correct, the firm of Estes and Company, of Topeka. You doubtless will hear from them in a very short while, as Mr. Estes was in this last week and talked over the matter with me.

I have asked for my money, as I expect to invest it in other securities.

Very sincerely yours,
