Dear Phog:

When I saw you in Lawrence last Thursday you told me that negotiations were on to refund the bonded indebtedness of the Kansas University Physical Education Corporation. If I remember correctly you remarked that a meeting was being held on that date.

Will you please advise me whether anything definite has been done up to this time. Also, are you free to disclose the name of the firm who have made the underwriting proposition. Just off hand I would guess it is Estes & Company at Topeka, who have been rather active in trading the bonds the last few years.

I shall greatly appreciate hearing from you in this connection, and with best regards remain

Yours very truly,
