Mr. John Glenn
Beardstown, Illinois

Dear John:

I am sending you a confidential note telling you that John got through his Foods and Nutrition with a C-, but he failed in his first examination in English History. I have now engaged a tutor for him and he cannot afford to fail on this final examination.

Burt DeGroot, who has his Masters Degree with a history major from Stanford, is the young man tutoring him. Burt is in our Physical Education Department and is a brother of Dudley DeGroot, who refereed the University of Southern California and Rice games for us last year. Dudley is now Athletic Director in Rochester, New York. I will let you know how John is getting along in his studies. I am very hopeful that he will make it and I believe he will if Burt can get him lined up.

There is another item that I would like to have you favor me with, and that is to pass on the following officials. Leonard D. Sachs, Director of Basketball, Loyola University, has written me suggesting the following:

"In reply to your letter of the 27th instant, I am submitting the following list of officials whom I recommend.

"However they may be busy on this date.

"Mr. Lyle Clarno----Illinois
Mr. N. Messinger---New York University
Mr. S. Pecorara----Dallas University
Mr. J. Enright-----Michigan
Mr. J. Kupcinet----North Dakota
Mr. M. Farber-----Wisconsin
Mr. I. Craig-----Illinois Wesleyan
Mr. Hoas-----Purdue"

Will you kindly tell me what you think of them?
