

1940-41 ROSTER
BIOGRAPHIES

WENSKUS, GEORGE-Capt. A Senior-hard driving-rugged-aggressive-Wink the only returning regular from the undefeated squad of '38-39, led the '39-40 squad in scoring with 178 points. Elected Captain as a Junior, George was again selected by his team-mates to lead the '40-41 Ramblers. An excellent shot- a clever ball handler-a quick thinker--a fine team man, all are reasons why Wink was selected at a Guard position on the Mythical All-Midwest team and the reasons for the prediction of a banner year and more honors for Wink.

GRAHAM, VINCENT--A Senior-One of last year's regulars and a member of the '38-39 squad--Combining exceptional jumping ability with natural basketball instinct, "Vee" plays any position, and although only 5'11" often jumps center. Besides being a two-letter man in Basketball he has won two Monograms in track where high jumping is his forte.

CAHILL, DANIEL--A Senior--A quick starter--an excellent rebounder--a one hand push shot artist. Dan a newcomer to the Sachs system one year ago, won a starting position by his quick response and natural ability. A years experience--a combination of natural ability and training-the result-- a dangerous threat to any Rambler foe.

LEE, EDWARD--A Senior--Steady-dependable--a good shot from any position--Ed a transfer student from St. Viator's readily took to the Sachs system and played a great deal of the time.--Though not
