Dear "Phog":

I am taking the liberty to send you the basket ball shirts about which I have been writing you but I have delayed doing so for a few days thinking maybe Mandeville could tuck them under his arm and talk to you about them some day soon. If and when you get the package and look these shirts over you feel that they are worth 75¢ each to you for any purpose you are welcome to them at that price.

On the other hand if you cannot use them or if there is not some fraternity group or some other bunch of boys up there that can use them and you do want to return them it will be O.K. to mail them back in or give them to Mandy the first time he is around. I am sending him a copy of this letter so he will be advised accordingly.

I am frank to admit that they might be just a little small for some of your boys then again there are a few that will be all right as to sizes. My thought was that you could at least use them as a practice garment on some of your second or third stringers.

Drop up to the second floor and see us occasionally when you are in town. Mrs. Allen dropped in and paid us a little visit a month or two ago and had a mighty fine looking daughter with her and if I remember correctly looks a little bit like the pater side of the family.

Yours sincerely,

L. V. Brown
