

Dear Dr. Allen:

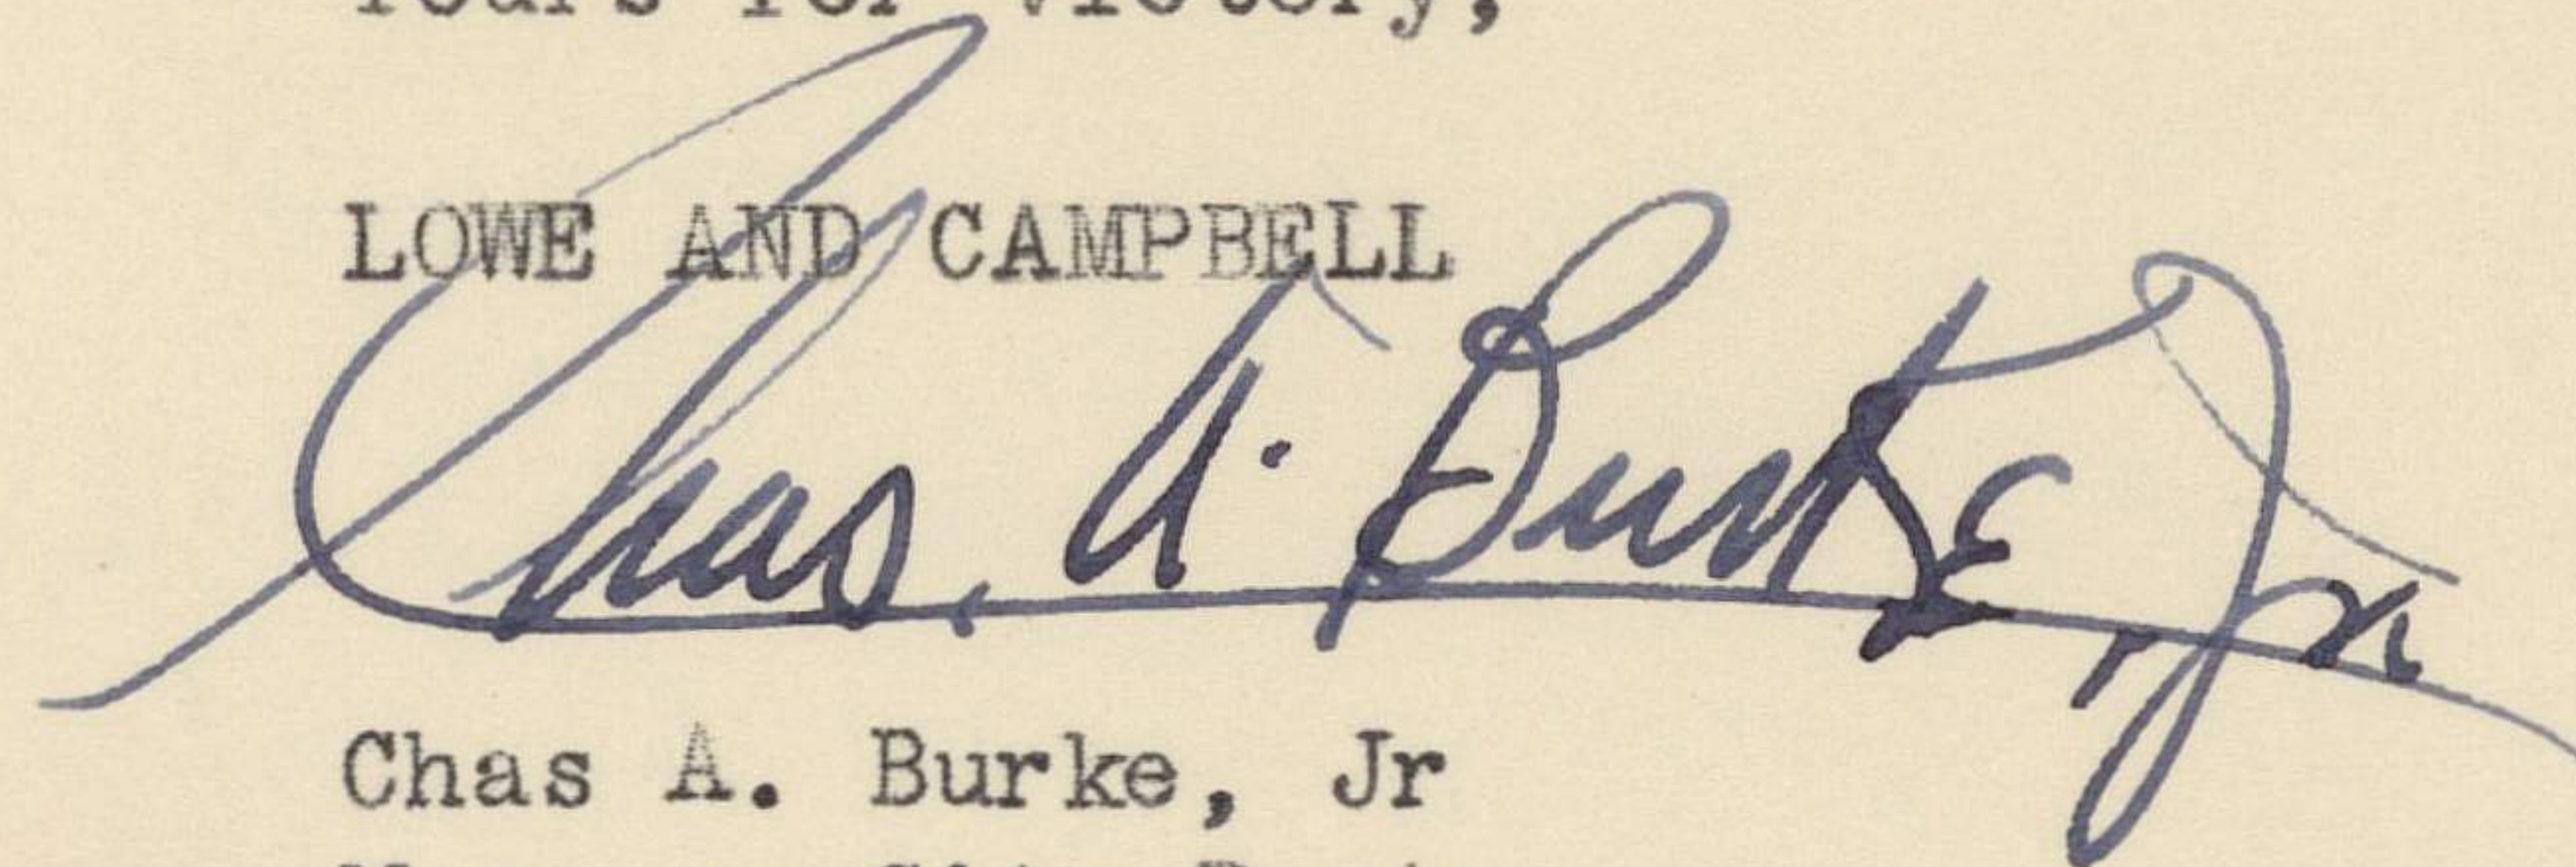

5.00

Certainly sorry about the error in the size of the basketball shoe. Apparently, it was filled without looking inside the box and that is where the mistake occurred.

There was only one pair of shoes the size 14 left, and that was the black Converse leather, which we have sent to you today, and are billing on the attached invoice at $4.50. We are not charging you any postage on the package, since it was necessary for you to pay the postage on the returned shoes. You will find attached a Credit Memorandum for the one pair of shoes returned to us today. Kindest personal regards.

Yours for victory,

LOWE AND CAMPBELL
