Mr. E. L. Falkenstein, Secy.,
University of Kansas,
Lawrence, Kansas.

Dear Mr. Falkenstein:

It looks like we are in trouble on the recent bid which we submitted on the repair work on one volley ball. This work was ordered on the University of Kansas order No. 1882.

At the time we bid on this, two balls were on hand but they were soccer balls. We thought the quotation request was written for a price on the repair work on two volley balls by mistake and bid on repair work on the soccer balls. Saturday we received one volley ball from the University which made it appear to us that possibly the repair work should have been quoted on the volley ball. Anyway, you can appreciate the fact that we do not know whether to go ahead with the soccer ball repair work or if this work should be done on the volley ball just received. Can you put us straight on this or turn this over to someone who can tell us just what should be done?

The volley ball received has not been checked so we do not know yet what it would cost to fix it but there is a good chance that the price will be more than 45¢, the amount quoted for the repair of the soccer ball received earlier.

The tennis darts and shuttlecocks on order No. 1882 went forward by mail today.

Very truly yours,

LOWE & CAMPBELL ATHLETIC GOODS CO.

Paul Fairhurst - Order Supervisor.
