Dear Marion:

Thank you for your very good letter of the 7th instant concerning our book, Better Basketball. I took your letter home and showed it to Mrs. Allen, and I assure you she and I both appreciate your kind words.

I have had some very fine letters concerning the book, and I am well pleased with the friendly comments. I was of the opinion that it was the best thing that I had done so far, and I am happy that you like it.

By the way, Marion, do you not think it would be well to write McGraw again and ask them for some small electro-plate cuts of the book? I think we need them for advertising, and if you ask them I believe it will be helpful.

With every good wish, I am

Very sincerely yours,
