Dear Marion:

I think your magazine, "TheCoach", is a swell bit of editorial work. Mrs. Allen thought that you certainly had the cartoonist do a good job on the guy with the pad and pencil. The trouble with this coach, he sleeps too much.

I wrote Mr. Curtis McGraw about your magazine this morning, and I am wondering if you will be kind enough to send him one, calling his attention to the splendid ad that you have given the book.

Also, will you kindly send me about a dozen of them so that I may have them for distribution here and there?

With every good wish, I am

Sincerely yours,
