Dear Doctor:

Your note from Columbia has been received, and I will be very happy to follow your suggestion and write immediately to Chuck Taylor regarding Fred Pralle's right to a berth on the All American Team.

I think you are absolutely right about it - there isn't anyone in the country who could be more entitled to the honor which goes with selection on this All Star Team - I have seen Pralle play and I know you are not exaggerating in the least in anything you have to say about him.

I can't be sure about it, but I have a hunch Chuck Taylor will welcome the suggestion.

Very cordially yours,

L. R. Freeburg
