

May 24, 1940.

Mr. Carl S. Byers,
Attorney-at-Law,
Salina, Kansas.

Dear Mr. Byers:

I am very happy to have your very frank letter. First, I want to assure you that I am one hundred per cent for placing the responsibility exactly where it belongs, and I believe that you have set forth in your letter a very fair exposition of the case.

I have just checked with the Athletic Office and find that they paid "Dutch" Uhrlaub for his services as a coach and for transportation expenses for his car at five cents a mile, the sum of $85.57.

During the time that he assisted me in basketball and when he served as tennis coach he was paid at the rate of fifty cents an hour. Of course, this runs into no big money. I have watched him pretty carefully and I am convinced that he has been very frugal in his living here and very economical in all of his expenses. He has maintained a car. He depended on officiating high school basketball games to keep up the car payments. At the same time, I can forgive no man for doing less than he should for his children and the mother of the children.

I have talked to Mrs. Frederick, and this letter from you convinces me that he should have done more, regardless of what has been possible for him to do.

I will not elaborate upon this, but I will call him in today and see that he definitely gets your message emphatically put. And further, I will emphasize that he send some money at once. I do not know where he will get it and I do not know how much he owes out of his $80.00.