

Dear Phog -

I am enclosing a copy of the Recreation Council's "donors letter", and am sending one to the other men on the finance committee so that you all may see how the way has been paved for the fund campaign. Each year we send a similar mimeographed letter to organizations on the Chamber of Commerce official list - these are sent in late April or early May - and to a list of potential donors compiled by Council members year after year. The list of individuals has gone as high as 243, but this year - with 3 cent postage - I have revised it downward to around 200 and have secured permission from Raymond Nichols to send those for Jaenty members through the exchange. If and when contributions are received - regardless of the amount - I send a receipt and a thank you. The names on the list are revised each year: if no response for two years, the name is deleted; if an interest is shown by some new "recruit", the name is added. So nearly as possible, the names are grouped as to
