Dear Dr. Allen:

Your letter just received. As per your suggestion I will write to Mr. Glenn again. I imagine he thinks that a couple of his friends still kept the machines that he had me send to them, as I remember it one was the President of his bank.

Enclosed you will find a check for the Edinburg Rural Schools of Texas of which D.C. Cannon is the Coach. They were late with this but better late than never.

I am still in New York as I am getting some wonderful contacts here and my overhead is nothing as my sister lives here and has space going to waste.

After this present football season ends I think that we should get some action out of Jimmy Cox of Harvard. Probably up to now he has had no opportunity to test it out.

I do not remember if I told you that I met the Physician in charge of the West Point football team when I was in West Point last week or so. I had meet him in Washington at the Walter Reed Hospital in connection with my machine. They are using it now at West Point every day as they have an unusual of foot injuries at this time. He is delighted with it. I replaced the
