Dear Helen:

Another Phog Allen procrastination. As soon as your letter arrived I kicked myself mentally, and said, "Allen, don't you remember that conversation with the affable lady in red? You promised her a Rebounds." Well, I sent the Rebounds immediately after your welcome letter of the 7th arrived, and you are on the mailing list from now on.

How those names - Twink Starr, John Wall, and Potsy Clark are associated with thrilling events! Twink was one of our shining stars, and John "Stony" Wall kicked that field goal against Missouri after the gun had fired announcing the end of the game, and what a victory Kansas celebrated. And Potsy Clark - what an enthusiastic and vehement coach he was!

I understand Potsy is at Okinawa, - or maybe it was Iwo Jima. Anyhow, Ad Lindsey and Potsy are both there.

Tell your husband that I am glad he is waging a crusade against the gambling element because if we do not strangle some of that activity, our high school and college games will be on the decline. Thank you for the clipping from the Honolulu Star-Bulletin.

Our kindest regards to you and your good husband.

Very sincerely yours,

Director of Physical Education,
Varsity Basketball Coach.
