Dear Dr. Allen:-

Thanks ever so much for your recent note. I'm very sorry that the Rubber Company got mixed up in your address - please accept my sincere apology. You may be assured that the same mistake will not be made in the future.

Here's hoping our paths will cross sometime soon. I should like very much to compete against you again on the golf course. I well remember the enjoyable round we had in Austin, Texas.

Kind regards.

Sincerely yours,

F. Leahy
