Dear Frank:

I enjoyed receiving your letter of June 14. It is with no desire to kid you or your department in addressing me at Lawrence Memorial High School, but rather for the more constructive matter of correcting your mailing list.

Elmer Schaake, an old Kansas football star, has been coach at Lawrence Memorial High School, but is now an ensign in the Navy. His place has been taken by Chalmers Woodard, of Dodge City. Doubtless you will want to write him a letter, which will personalize your message.

I think it is fine that you can have a connection in a business world which gives you some escape from your strenuous coaching duties. I remember with great pleasure a few golf games that we have had together, and also our nice visit when you and I were at Austin with Dana Bible.

Wishing you continued success, and wishing to compliment you on the fine work you have done at Notre Dame, I am

Sincerely yours,
