Dear Gus:

It was indeed nice of you, Gus, to write me as you did in your letter of May 23. I have always cherished your friendship and acquaintance. And although we do have too little time to sit down and visit in the good old American way of early days, I always enjoy it when an opportunity presents itself.

Thanking you for your many good wishes, and desiring to be remembered to your lovely wife and family, I am

Faternally,
