Dear Roland,

Bob Allen is studying medicine at the University of Pennsylvania in Philadelphia, and his sister, Eleanor, is also in school there. Mrs. Allen desires that they see the Army-Navy game. I am wondering if you could tell me how we could purchase tickets for that great spectacle?

Now, I do not expect you to get them, but if you'll tell me how I can use any good offices to procure these tickets, I'll appreciate it. I know Mrs. Allen would rather see that game with them than anything in the world, but she'll probably back out if we were fortunate enough to get tickets. Won't you write me frankly and let me know if there's a chance to get two?

I'm almost afraid even to write and ask you if there's a chance to get four, but you'll now hurt my feelings if you'll tell me very frankly just what the situation is. I'd greatly appreciate a reply at your convenience.

Wishing you continued success and asking that you remember me to your family and our friends at the Point I am,

Sincerely,

FCA/pg
