

3) course, under a separate epistle I have informed both Deans that I used their names for references. In the near future, the director of the Department of Education will contact the people whom I have listed.

The benchman of Uncle Sam examined me about six weeks ago, and my draft board on the basis of their report classified me in Group IV F. My father, on the other hand, was examined