

LES IS HAPPY...

...he's happy because he has something "LEFT"!.....and because she doesn't ask embarrassing questionsthat is, not often!and she never keeps him in the dog house more than a week at a stretch....that is, not usually!.....and she doesn't nag at him for scattering his clothes all over the place.... that is, not much!.... And she doesn't insist on picking out his ties and shirts and never writes to Emily Post about his breakfast table manners... .she always lets him read the sport page and dunk his toast in peace....that is, almost always!

And "Lefty" and Les are both happy because of a little package of four year old bottled-in-bond sunshine..... Shirley Ann, the grandchick who roosts with a couple of swell birds' ...Margaret and "Smitty" ////////////////////////////////////// And it all adds up to this.....because they have so many true blue friends just like you the whole ~~damn~~ flock of the "BLUEBIRDS" are happy!.....and they hope you're happy too! ...honestly they do!
