Mr. Sidney Linscott,
Home State Bank,
Erie, Kansas.

Dear Sidney:

I am terribly sorry that your letter arrived so late that there were no tickets to be had, with the exception of standing room. The reserved seat tickets had been sold out for nearly a month. That is the reason I offered to play in Kansas City so everybody could have a chance to see the game.

You can rest assured that if there was any possible way to get the tickets we would get them for you. I turned your letter over to Mr. Earl Falkenstien, financial secretary of the Athletic Association, and he has doubtless written you, but I wanted to convey my regrets and best wishes.

Very cordially yours,

Director of Physical Education and Recreation,
Varsity Basketball Coach.
