Mr. A. C. "Dutch" Lonborg,
Coach of Basketball,
Northwestern University,
Evanston, Illinois.

Dear "Dutch":

Thank you for your very kind letter of the 18th instant. I talked to Mary over the phone and I expected to pay for the tickets. If Lee paid for them I was expecting to do so. If they are not paid for, will you kindly have your office mail me a statement and I will send you a check at once.

I got a nice letter from John Glenn last week and he told me he had a conference with Lynn. He had told Lynn just before the first game he thought the team was highly over-rated. Since John has proven a prophet I am writing him and congratulating him on his wizardry in analyzing the power before the team was tested. I quite agree with you that everybody else has been more or less laying for you and it will be good to get the Indian sign on someone else.

With all good wishes to you and Mrs. Lonborg,
I am

Sincerely yours,
