My dear "Phog":

You will recall the telephone conversation from Kansas City relative to the scheduling of the "B" game. At that time I thought it very questionable that we would be able to offer any kind of opposition with the "B" team, and after a couple of weeks practice, I find that it would still be impossible for us to give any kind of opposition as a "B" team.

We will do the best we can for the Varsity, and we are going to steam it up. We plan to bring up a fifty or fifty-five piece band, and will probably swell the crowd a couple of hundred or so. Unless it is advisable to sell tickets here, it would be less complicating if all of them are handled there. We should like to know the price of admission, however, so that we may give it some publicity.

You may give me the blame for calling off the "B" game if that is necessary. The only excuse I have to offer is that there just isn't any "B" team at the present time.

Very truly yours

E. S. Liston
Athletic Director
