

September 21, 1943.

Mr. Bill Lindquist,
1007 Central Avenue,
Kansas City, Kansas.

Dear Bill:

I was happy to get your letter dated the 18th. The letter just came this morning. I would be delighted to have you here at the University, and I am sure that you could procure a very good education. I do not know what you are especially interested in for a major, but why could you not come to Lawrence real soon? In that way we could talk over the situation.

I am sure that we would have work for you here because none of the boys in the service can accept any money, and there are quite a few jobs open. The civilian population will be small compared to the large number of students enrolled in school.

The psychological examinations and aptitude tests are on Thursday and Friday of this week, and enrollment will be on Monday, the 27th. I am sending this special delivery so that the letter will be in your hands at the earliest possible moment and may enable you to make up your mind.

Yes, I remember Tom Van Cleave spoke to me quite a bit about you and it seems to me as if I am pretty well acquainted with you. I am very sure that you would be able to make a place on the varsity team this year, and since we are going to have a pretty good schedule I am sure that I would be happy in working with you.

I can understand perfectly well why you attended Creighton and if I were you I would have done the same thing. When all of your buddies in high school left for Creighton naturally you would want to do the same thing. Mr. Jim DeCoursey is a very fine friend of mine, and I am sure that we will be happy to have you here. Won't you write me, or call me at my expense so that no time will be lost if you are interested?

With all good wishes, I am

Sincerely yours,

FCA:AH

Director of Physical Education,
Varsity Basketball Coach.