

FORT JACKSON, SOUTH CAROLINA

I guess that I had better close this letter. It is fairly late here and work is stacking up on us. You know there is a lot of work getting an outfit like this ready to go. It is almost mid-night now and some of the boys are still working. I am in Charge of Quarters and therefor I am staying up late. When I finish this letter I'll go to bed.

Don't forget to notice my change of address. I'll put it at the end of this letter so that you will have it. Give my regards to all. Hope to see everyone back on the Hill after this mess is over.

As ever
