Dear Uncle Phog,

You didn't expect to get a letter from me, probably, but surprise!

Here's the deal! I wonder if you could possibly get me a ticket for the K.U.-M.U. football game. I tried to buy one here but they are all sold out. If you can, let me know and I will send you the money.

Tell everyone hello and I hope to see you soon.

Thanks a lot,

Eve

P.S. Tell Aunt Bess that I haven't written because the heirs have not decided when they are going to meet.
