Dear Doc:

After waiting a month at San Francisco for orders, finally got them and joined Argus 32, an Amphibious outfit.

The base of all Argus units is Port Huenehene, Cal. and I was there for 5 weeks before we headed for this island.

It's a pretty bleak island, unable to boast a single tree, but it isn't too bad when the sun shines. That has only been about half of the time.

I have charge of 20 radiomen, of which 5 turned out to be former Kansans. They're all kids, 18 and 19 years old.

Haven't seen a single basketball game this winter and sure miss it. The only sports event I have seen
