

August 28, 1943.

Mr. M. H. Malott,
President, Citizens Bank,
Abilene, Kansas.

Dear Mr. Malott:

Last night Chancellor and Mrs. Malott were out at the Country Club to a dinner party with us. The Chancellor spoke of your desire some time to play the Lawrence Country Club course. I told the Chancellor that I was going to write you and invite you up at any time that is convenient for you. We would be delighted to have you at any time.

I have in mind a foursome that I am sure you will enjoy. Mr. Irving Hill, the president of the Lawrence National Bank, and I play quite often. There is another young gentleman about your age, Mr. Harry A. Weaver, who formerly was vice president of the Kansas City Southern Railway Company, who now lives here in Lawrence after his retirement as vice president. He is a good golfer and I am sure that all of us would enjoy your golfing on the Jayhawk course.

Monday noon at 12:30 is the weekly meeting of Rotary Club. Since the Chancellor is a member of Rotary I thought it might be possible some Monday for you to come in and attend the Rotary meeting with the Chancellor, and then we could arrange a game with these gentlemen at your convenience after lunch.

I am sorry that we do not have an eighteen-hole course. We closed nine holes last spring to keep the wolf from the door. But we do have a lovely nine-hole course. The fairways are in wonderful shape and the greens are even better. Don't put off your coming, but write me at your convenience and any time you make a date will be agreeable to us.

I remember with great pleasure my speaking at Abilene Rotary Club when you were in attendance some three or four years ago.

Sincerely yours,

Director of Physical Education,
Varsity Basketball Coach.
