, has departed for service and to date; there hasn't been one replacement. So it is apparent that things are really at a low ebb, athletically speaking, at Washington. In this statement I do not commit Washington one way or the other but it is "one man's opinion."

It was, indeed, a pleasure to spend an hour or so with you when you were in St. Louis. That is one of the benefits of athletic participation---the opportunity to make friendships which carry on in later years.

With my kindest regards, I am,

Very truly yours,
