Dear Doc:

I read your speech in the newspaper as well as the editorial comment in this morning's times.

I believe the one thing, Doc, which makes you a great boy is the fact that you are willing to take the bull by the horns and discuss a controversial subject without pulling any punches.

I have been advised what a fine record your youngsters are making. I know you are glad for this.

Give my real personal regards to your good wife. May the Lord keep you and bless you, Doc, for many years to come.

Your influence is felt in many places.

Best regards.

Cordially yours

Mac
