

September 24, 1941.

Mr. Harry W. Mons,
Hill-Clarke Machinery Co.,
649 Washington Blvd.,
Chicago, Illinois.

Dear Mr. Mons:

I am very happy indeed to order from A. G. Spalding Brothers a duplication of the order that was sent to you. I ordered it sent in your name for the reason that I thought it would be better because the salesman taking the order knew that your son had married my daughter. I had a perfect right to send it to Mr. Wigglesworth, but there were other people in the audience when I ordered, so that it was easier to do it in this way.

I did not order golf balls because you did not specify them. If Mr. Wigglesworth wants them you just let me know and I will have a dozen sent him by mail. I was told by the salesman that there is a new government tax now on all athletic goods so there may be a small additional charge of five or ten per cent - I am not sure. Anyhow, I will send you the invoice and you can give it to Mr. Wigglesworth and he can mail me a check.

We are always glad to hear from you and also to hear regarding the Elwood Mons's. I imagine the painting job that they were doing was on that furniture that they bought. I understand they could buy more unpainted furniture and they just decided to do the job themselves.

By the way, did you receive that arch normalizer from Mr. F. W. Lang? I am anxious to hear how you are progressing.

Sincerely yours,

Director of Physical Education and Recreation,
Varsity Basketball and Baseball Coach.

FCA:AH