

of the boys, to slow him up, would just as soon cripple the team.

In closing believe me when I say my interest are still in line with the best interests of the K V basketball team and not my son Ralph, he can take care of himself pretty well, but he's smart enough to sense it & that is one reason he probably doesn't hustle all he could. What good does it do to work hard, break for the basket for a clear set up & have the ball passed to some fellow who is covered & takes a wild shot or gets tied up. Still I hope to try to keep him hustling all the time no matter what happens.

Sincerely yours.

Harold C. Miller.
