

February 10, 1942.

Mr. Arthur Morse,
10 So. LaSalle St.,
Chicago, Illinois.

Dear Arthur:

I have delayed much too long to thank you for your wonderful hospitality and kindness shown us when we were with the University of Kansas basketball team in Chicago.

I also want you to know how deeply I appreciate your thoughtfulness in sending Mrs. Allen and Mrs. Elwood Mons (nee Jane Allen) those two lovely corsages for the alumni dinner. Women love flowers and the attention that thoughtful men show them. Both of the women folks expressed their gratitude for your thinking of them. And of course I wish to thank you for your thoughtfulness to them.

Will you also kindly convey to Honorable Judge John A. Sbarbaro my appreciation for his hospitality when he had me to breakfast the morning of January 31? He is a grand gentleman, highly intelligent, and a most entertaining conversationalist. I enjoyed every minute of our visit with you and with him.

Arthur, will you be kind enough to write me the translation of that Jewish boy's experience who attended Notre Dame? I think it is a swell story and I have need for it in an after-dinner speech on February 18. I have it pretty well sketched in but if you do not remember it in its entirety I am wondering if you would call the Judge over the phone and get him to dictate it to you so that you could pass it on to me. I do not want to bother him with it, but I will not mind imposing upon you to this extent. I will appreciate it if you will give this your prompt attention as this story will make the dinner meeting a success, I hope.

Again thanking you for your many kindnesses, and regretting that we had inclement weather for our attraction, I am, with kindest personal regards,

Sincerely yours,

Director of Physical Education and Recreation,
Varsity Basketball and Baseball Coach.
