Mrs. Alva Blake Mulvany
Independence, Missouri

Dear Mrs. Mulvany:

Mrs. Allen and I received the announcement of the wedding of our little girl, as I knew her, Agnes Elizabeth Brady, to Mr. James Madison Smart, on Saturday, the 24th of May, at 2:30 o'clock in the afternoon, at the Saint Stephen's Church, Kansas City, Missouri.

It so happens that I am coaching the baseball team and we're playing Kansas State College on that date. I regret that it will be impossible to be present, and, since I'll be driving the Allen family car to coach the boys, I'm afraid Mrs. Allen will be unable to attend.

However, we do wish to know Agnes' silver pattern so that we may have the pleasure of contributing to her silver chest. Won't you write me at your earliest convenience and let me know?

And do congratulate the young lady for us and tell her that we're wishing for her all the health, happiness, and prosperity in the world.

With kindest regards to you and yours, I am,

Sincerely yours,
