Mr. I. J. Meade,
Vice President,
Lawrence National Bank,
Lawrence, Kansas.

Dear I.J.:

I have just returned to my desk after my trip to Iowa and I find your fine article which you read to the Lawrence Rotary Club.

It was full of good humor and was greatly enjoyed. Especially did I enjoy the remarks you made concerning my grandfather. He was a grand old gentleman although I was very young when I had the pleasure of being with him. The compensations that we mortals have in learning about our relatives from some of our other friends is highly gratifying.

With all good wishes, I am

Sincerely yours,
