the board now. I am sorry if I have failed in other respects, for the last year I tried hard to please every one I could and make friends and those who disliked me change their mind some. I really thought I was doing better.

Also, I told you before that if I had not made myself scholastically eligible and otherwise, that I would expect anything from you. We need a man's ~~bet~~ bet and I intend to keep up my end of it. Naturally you are the one who determines my worth and whether or not I made good. That's the way it was and still is as far as I am concerned.

Until this summer my athletics were to important to me. Now, it has a different light to me. I honestly believe your many lectures and etc on scholarship
