

the puck be out of sight of the referee, he shall immediately blow his

YOUNG COURT WIZARD.

Dale Hall, 15 years old, the almost 6-foot sophomore on the Parsons, Kas., cage team, is making himself an enviable niche in the Kansas high school basketball hall of fame. He blends ace scoring ability with stellar floor play to produce a result comparable, his fans say, to Ralph Miller, K. U. star.