

March 1, 1940.

Dean Julien C. Monnet,
School of Law,
University of Oklahoma,
Norman, Oklahoma.

Dear Dean Monnet:

Your very gracious invitation has been received and I want you to know how deeply I appreciate your thought of us. I feel, however, that since there is so little time after the game for us to get back to Oklahoma City to catch our train, that we shall have to decline.

I have attended your oyster suppers in the past, and I know what a festive occasion it is. Personally, it would please me very much to be with you, but due to the fact that Mrs. Allen and I have an engagement in Kansas City the following night, I feel that I should not stay over.

It will be a pleasure for me to tell the Aszmans that I have heard from you. I know they will be happy to have a greeting from you.

With best wishes, I am

Very cordially yours,

Director of Physical Education and Recreation,
Varsity Basketball Coach.

FCA:AH