Mr. Arthur Morse,

Chicago, Illinois.

Dear Mr. Morse:

I have a vague recollection of your telling me about a traveling bag that was to be presented to me at some time before or after the game. I do not know how long after the game your statement signified, but I am always traveling, and generally without a bag. I hope it is not a cellophane bag, or a zeppelin! Sometimes these statements go over my head. That is why I mentioned the zeppelin!

Would you care to elaborate or elucidate on your previous statement?

With all good wishes, I am

Very sincerely yours,

Director of Physical Education and Recreation,
Varsity Basketball Coach.
