

realize your schedule will be quite demanding & suggest you call us as soon as you have an idea of your routine and then we can decide on the time for your arrival.

Our calendar is at your convenience, and we will hope you can have dinner with us and spend an evening. If that can't be arranged we can decide over the phone what alternative to set -

We're all looking forward to seeing you. Howard (the son) is terribly impressed by the way. Ahah!

Cordially,

Elizabeth D. MacLardy
