

My daughter plays flute in the band. I have been so busy keeping up - or trying to keep up with my group of youngsters I had little time for myself or I should have tried to find you people. By the way, we brought the cup home each time.
Our daughter played in both Class B & C, Bards as kept her stepping lively. She will be seventeen in May and has a young man this winter so he takes more of her interest than does her school work or band, but I'm thankful she waited two years <sup>longer</sup> for the "stage" than did the rest of her group.
She is not the student her Auntie Kathryn was - I am sad to note.

Kathryn is teaching in L. A. Has arthritis, which is a serious handicap, but she is just as full of "pep" as ever.
