

August 29, 1938.

Mr. Charles L. Mitchell,
Crane and Company,
Topeka, Kansas.

Dear Uncle Charlie:

Thank you for your good letter of the 26th instant.
It was good to hear from you.

Doubtless you know that Mr. Gwinn Henry is Director of Athletics at the University of Kansas, and I have the Department of Physical Education. However, it will be a pleasure for me to pass this on to the proper party and you will get service de luxe on your tickets for you and Mr. Carruth.

Mr. Earl Falkenstein, who was my financial secretary, and who acts in the same capacity under Mr. Henry, is the man who sees that you get said de luxe service. I am passing this letter on to him, and I am very sure that you will have a letter in a short while giving you the necessary information as to the amount of tax and ticket money required for these tickets located in the choice section of Kansas Memorial Stadium.

The fact that the Washburn emissaries tapped you for two tickets is evidence enough that the football season is soon to be here. I have noticed that football tang in the air the last few days - just occasionally - but the nights are getting cooler and the football sap is beginning to flow. Now, there are so many kinds of football sap, you know, that we need to define, but we will not do it here.

With all good wishes, I am

Sincerely yours,

Director of Physical Education, Varsity Basketball Coach.
