Port Arthur, Texas.

Dear Tiny:

I haven't anything to report that will be helpful to you, Tiny. I thought maybe that Elwyn would be able to use you for spring practice, but the way Elwyn talks they are not going to make any additions to the training staff over what they have.

We leave here Thursday night for Norman, and while at Oklahoma City I will see if I can contact some of the oil people in your behalf. I imagine it is pretty hard to get in on the crew now on account of union labor, but you can rest assured that I will do all that I can for you.

I have some good friends in the Standard and the Phillips companies. But the only way a lot of those fellows do anything for a fellow is when a fellow can do something for them in a trade. If you happen to hit those people when they are feeling all right you might make connections, but I am never in a position to hit them at the psychological time.

If anything does turn up you can count on my helping you.

With every good wish, I am

Sincerely yours,

Director of Physical Education,
Varsity Basketball Coach.
