Dear Dr. Allen; -

I just received your welcome letter this noon as I came in from making the rounds of hunting work. My job finished Saturday and now I'm hunting for a job again. I've a few angles for jobs in view but those I have contacted so far only promise that they will do the best they can but that never seems to do any good.

I have been trying to keep up with the results of the games but its rather difficult to do here. It seems that the Big Six race is going to be closer than most people had anticipated. I'm sure the boys will give them all a battle though. Anyway I'm hoping you can land another Championship and upset some pre-season dogs.

I have been expecting to hear from E. Wynn anytime but I know he is terribly busy now. Then, too, with spring football, track, and baseball coming along he only has more work added. You can leave it to him to get around it all somehow though. I expect that
