Mr. W. J. Gartner,
McGraw-Hill Book Co.,

New York City.

Dear Mr. Gartner:

Thank you very much for your good letter of the 16th stating that you were dispatching the tracings and the photographs of the exhibits. They arrived this afternoon.

This serves the purpose very admirably, and I thank you for your very kind cooperation. You have been very nice, indeed.

This afternoon I received your letter of the 17th, and am sorry that my explanation of the bandages was not quite clear to you. However, I am very happy that this has been worked out. I know Mr. Bowman could give you expert advice. I have called on him a number of times, and he has never failed to respond.

Very sincerely yours,
